THE ASTORIAN PUBLISHING CO., P. M. MAHER. Manager,

It is a melancholy greeting that was tendered to the Grand Army of the Republic veterans. Its heartiness to the living was veiled by its Four full pages from Seton-Thompmemory of the dead. Last year took away fifty thousand of the men who fought thirty-seven years ago. But as they meet and pass the line each year they may always remember that and their efforts command the esteem war time work counts for little, but the memories which history will keep green shall ever find a place in patriotic hearts. It is not a case of what troubles. Electric Bitters are a posithey are today; is simply this: They fought to build up this nation. As they yearly answer the roll call, the diminished numbers pathetically place another chapter on the scroll, and very soon the good old soldiers will give place to younger men. Thus a careless world passes on its way.

If some Eastern florists could see our opea-air productions there would be a demand for land in our immediate vicinity. We have received a hydrangea blossom which measures slightly over 18 inches, grownb by Mrs. Svensen of Svensen. The flower is in perfect condition and this is the tenth day of Oc

OTHER CITIES.

In welcoming the G. A. R. men at Washington, D. C., the secretary of state, passed the following eulogium to America's fighters: Our fathers ordained that in this Republic there should be no distinctions; but human nature is stronger than laws and nothing can prevent this people from showing honor to all who have deserved well of the country. Every man who has borne arms with credit has earned and is sure to receive a spec'al measure of regard. And it is our pe culiar privilege to remember that our "Words cannot tell what I suffered for thirteen years with womb trouble and dragging-down pains through my hips and back," writes Mrs. John Dickson, of Grenfell, Assimbols Dist., N.W. Ter. "I can't describe the misery it was to be on my feet long at a time. I could not eat nor sleep. Often I wished to die. Then I saw Dr. Plerce's medicines advertised and thought I would try them. Had not taken one bottle till I was feeling well. After I had taken five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I was like a new woman. Could eat and sleep and do all my own work. I would entreat of any lady suffering from female weakness to give Dr. Pierce's Pavorite Prescription a fair trial, for I know the benefit she will receive."
